Notable Ingredients of Acerola

Add it to your tea.
It's a great way to relax in the afternoon.

Vitamin C

Lemons are known as vitamin C fruits, but acerola cherries contain about 17 times more vitamin C than lemons. It is effective in preventing colds, relieving fatigue, and rough skin. Vitamin C is a nutrient that is necessary for good health, but it cannot be synthesized by the human body (internal body), so it is important to consume it on a regular basis.

Polyphenols (anthocyanins)

It has the ability to inhibit blemishes and freckles, and with the antioxidant power of vitamin C working in conjunction with this effect, which is expected to have a beautiful skin.
